R.BASANT, J.

B.A.No.5448 of 2007

Dated this the 10th day of September 2007

O R D E R

Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioners apprehend that they may be arrested by the police on the allegation that they have committed non-bailable offences. Notice was given to the learned Public Prosecutor. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that the petitioners are not required to be arrested. There is no crime registered against them. In these circumstances, the apprehension of the petitioners is without any basis, submits the learned Public Prosecutor on behalf of the respondents.

2. The submission of the learned Public Prosecutor are taken note of and recorded. It is now evident that the apprehension of the petitioners is without any basis. The learned Public Prosecutor undertakes that if the petitioners were to be arrested on the allegations referred to in the bail application subsequently, the permission of this court shall be sought and obtained before any such attempt is made.

3. These submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor are taken note of and recorded. It is evident that the application of the petitioners is without any basis. This petition is accordingly dismissed, as agreed.
